

HIPPO Document Analysis

H	Historical Context	What was going on when the author wrote this document? How does this help you better understand the document?
I	Intended Audience	Identify the person or the group the author expects to inform or influence. How does this impact the author's message? Why is the author speaking to this audience?
P	Point of View	Who is the author? How did the author's background (race, gender, socioeconomic class) impact their written perspective?
P	Purpose	Why did the author create the source? Common purposes include attempts to inform, to entertain, to persuade, to influence, to teach, to record, requirements of the author's job or profession, to describe, self-aggrandizement, and/or to regulate (as in laws or rules).
O	Outside Information	What specific historical information outside of the document can you connect to the document? How does it better help you understand this document?